The parties do hereby further agree that in every employment relationship grievances and dissatisfactions arise. Constructive suggestions can often go unheeded and the Center/Stanton School system is no exception. A plan to assure the orderly presentation of suggestions, to resolve dissatisfactions, and readdress grievances of both supervisory and teaching personnel is an important part to the effective operation of the Center/Stanton Public School system.

Section I

a. Objectives:

- i. To insure an opportunity for professional staff members and administrators to have unobstructed communication with one another and the School Board with respect to allege grievances with fear of reprisal.
- ii. To reduce the potential area of conflict between professional staff members, administrators, and school boards.
- iii. To encourage and assure the freedom of effective communications through recognized channels between professional staff members, administrators, and the school board.

- v. To contribute to the development of improved morale and effectiveness of the Center/Stanton professional staff through an increased understanding of the Center/Stanton School policies which affect them.

b. General Principles:

- i. It shall be the firm policy of the Board to assure every professional employee the unobstructed use of the grievance procedure without fear of reprisal or without prejudice in any manner to his/her professional or employment status.
- ii. After an unsuccessful attempt at resolving the difference of a grievance situation at the lowest applicable administrative level, a professional employee may seek and use the assistance of a designated representative of the Professional Rights and Responsibilities Committee of the Center/Stanton Education Association in the presentation and/or appeal of any grievance. Upon notification of the PR & R Committee, such committee assistance may include, but not limited to, the direct representation of the professional employee at all steps of the grievance procedure. The PR & R Committee will begin its representation at the lowest applicable administrative level.
- iii. The failure of a professional employee to proceed to the next step of the grievance procedure within the time limits set forth shall be deemed to be acceptance of the decision previously rendered and shall constitute a waiver of any future appeal concerning the particular grievance. The failure of any aggrieved at any step to communicate his decision to the professional employee or other employees with the specified time limits shall permit the employees to proceed to the next step. All time limits may be extended by mutual agreement in writing.
- iv. All documents, communications and records dealing with the processing of a grievance shall be filed separately from the personnel files of the participants and shall be held

- confidential. These records shall be kept in a locked file with public access allowed only by written agreement of the school superintendent and the PR & R Committee chairman.
- v. All resources of North Dakota Education Association and the National Education Association may be utilized by the local association or the individual during the grievance procedures.
 - vi. School days for purposes of the grievance procedure shall mean teacher employment days. Grievances processed during the summer months will be under time limits as stated in this agreement, but school days shall mean calendar days excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays.
 - vii. Any grievance which is not presented for disposition through the grievance procedure within 30 school days after knowledge of the occurrence which it is claimed gave rise to the grievance shall be void. In the event of extenuating circumstances, a written explanation of their nature shall accompany the notification of the PR & R Committee of the grievance and the written description of the grievance at the first formal level. No professional employee who cites extenuating circumstances as reason for not beginning the procedure within 30 days shall be unreasonable denied the use of this grievance procedure.
