Amended by board motion 4/19/2017.

1. The Scranton School Board reserves the right to pay over the salary schedule to persons in critical areas of instruction. This applies to any teacher or part-time teacher the board feels would be in the best interest of the school.
2. Teachers who on the opening of school with a Scranton teaching contract; can show evidence of having moved from one educational lane to a higher one, will have salary adjustments made to the proper category. Notification must be given to school personnel (Supt.) in writing by the end of the first month of school.
3. LEAVES:
 - A. Sick leave - Ten (10) days of sick leave per year accumulative to 85 days. Each teacher shall be allowed to use five of these ten days each year for non-critical illness within the immediate family (parents excluding in-laws, children and spouse). For the 2011-12 school year, this increases to five days of the ten non-accumulative. Two days of the sick leave can be used for non-relative funerals. In case of chronic or extended sick leave taking, the board reserves the right to demand confirmation of the illness by a qualified physician.
 1. A teacher who has accumulated 85 sick days shall be reimbursed at the end of each academic year for one half days salary for each unused sick leave day over the total of 85 days.
 2. If the board terminates for just cause, other than reduction in force, no payment is to be made. Those teachers who would be terminated because of reduction in force would be granted such payment of one half days pay for each unused sick day over 85 days.
 3. At retirement, unused sick days will be paid at $20 per day up to 85.
 - B. Professional Leave: Teachers shall receive a maximum of three days professional leave to be used for any purpose which would lead to advancement in the field of education. The instructor must have prior approval of the school superintendent.
 - C. Personal Leave: Each teacher shall receive two days personal leave per year. The teacher shall be allowed to carry up to three days of personal leave each year to an accumulative total carryover of three days. This is in addition to the two days given each year. The instructor must have prior approval of the superintendent. If the instructor so chooses he/she may have the option of buying back or being reimbursed one-half day's base salary, excluding any extra-curricular pay, for any unused personal days.
 - D. Emergency or Funeral Leave: A teacher shall receive up to a maximum of 15 days leave for immediate family critical illness and up to a maximum of five days funeral leave for immediate family death, not to be deducted from accumulated leave with the understanding that a full day's salary thereafter will be withheld from the teacher's salary. Approval must be granted in writing by the board and/or superintendent. Clarification of immediate family is defined as follows: All parties agree that the deceased person must be a father, father-in-law, mother, mother-in-law, spouse, brother, brother-in-law, sister, sister-in-law, child, stepchild, grandchild or grandparent of the employee or the employee's spouse. Two (2) days of the 15 days emergency leave days may be used for other emergency purposes upon the approval of the board and/or superintendent.
 - E. Maternity Leave for Childbirth: A maternity leave of absence shall be granted to a female employee for the purpose of childbearing under the following provisions:
 1. The teacher will notify the superintendent of her desires to take sick leave 30 days prior to the date the leave is to begin. An exception to this is in the case of an emergency.
 2. The decision as to how far into her pregnancy the teacher will continue active employment and as to when the teacher will return to active employment will be made by the teacher and her physician.
 3. A ten (10) day maternity leave will be granted to the female teacher requesting leave.
 4. The remaining part of the leave will be charged to the teacher's available sick leave or any other leave granted by the contract (I.e. personal leave). After the sick leave time has been used up, the teacher will be considered on leave of absence without pay.
 5. This leave will in no way deprive her of previously earned leave, seniority, and insurance benefits.
 6. Upon returning, the teacher has the same re-employment rights as a teacher who returns from sick leave.
 - F. Sabbatical Leave: The board will consider requests for sabbatical leave on a one-on-one basis with the approval of the board and superintendent.
 - G. Inclement Weather Leave: Instructors who cannot make it to school due to inclement weather and school is held; shall take personal leave. If they have no personal leave, then they will take a pay deduction for days missed beyond the personal leave. Salary determined on 1/180th of the instruction salary.
 - H. Paternity Leave for Childbirth: A paternity leave of absence shall be granted to a male employee under the following provisions:

1. The teacher will notify the superintendent of his desires to take sick leave 30 days prior to the date the leave is to begin. An exception to this is in case of an emergency.
 2. A ten (10) day paternity leave will be granted to the male teacher requesting leave.
 3. The remaining part of the leave will be charged to the teacher's available sick leave or any other leave granted by the contract (i.e. personal leave). After the sick leave time has been used up, the teacher will be considered on leave of absence without pay.
 4. This leave will in no way deprive him of previously earned leave, seniority, and insurance benefits.
 5. Upon returning, the teacher has the same re-employment rights as a teacher who returns from sick leave.
4. Medical Insurance: Scranton School instructors shall receive benefits to a maximum of the single policy premium per teacher for health insurance. Part-time instructors will receive a percentage of the single policy premium equivalent to the percentage of their employment. The board will pay health insurance premiums only to the school's group health insurance company. All teachers desiring health insurance must submit in writing to the business manager by September 15, of each year. Teachers not taking the medical benefits will be allowed the option of an employer contributed flexible spending account to a maximum of $2,300 for teachers employed prior to 7-1-96. Those teachers employed after 7-1-96, may participate on a use or lose basis insurance plan only. Retired teachers will be allowed to continue with the group medical insurance beyond the 18 month Cobra period provided that 1) the retiree pays for the premium and is responsible for set up and maintenance with the provider, and 2) the group medical plan is in tact via negotiations, and such coverage is allowed by the provider and state/federal law.
5. Substitutes: Teachers (7-12) will be reimbursed $14.50 per period or $100 per day for substitute teaching for school activities, professional leave, sick leave and personal leave when substitute teachers are not available. Teachers (K-6) will be reimbursed $14.5 per hour or $7.25 per ½ hour for substitute teaching for other teachers or covering another teacher's class. Coaching substitutes will be reimbursed $13 per practice and per game with advance approval from the athletic director and/or superintendent. (Substitute coaching will apply to sickness and/or emergency leave).
6. Credits: To advance to the next lane on the salary schedule, credit will be given for those hours earned in the teacher's major or minor fields and/or related fields.

Summer school and extension course attendance shall be as follows to advance on the salary schedule.

1. Teachers with degrees must acquire 4 semester hours every five years.
2. Teachers may substitute 16 hours of inservice training for 1 semester hour according the following policy.
3. All credits must be earned from an accredited college or university.
4. In-service policy - retroactive to 1974 - Teachers would be able to transfer up to 80 hours and/or 4 semester hours to the Scranton School salary schedule.
 - A. NDEA academic workshops held on Saturday, before or after school hours, night workshops, etc. Workshops held during teacher contract period within school hours would not qualify.
 - B. Other academic workshops held on Saturday, before or after school hours, night workshops, etc. Workshops held during teacher contract period within school hours, would not qualify.
 - C. Athletic clinics not offering credit. (Coaches area of concentration)
7. Teacher Probation: Scranton School teachers placed on probation will not receive a salary increase for the following year. Probation is defined as a teacher who goes through contemplated non-renewal but is given permission to teach for one year on probation. Probation is an alternative to dismissal.
8. A copy of the Scranton salary agreement will be reviewed every year according to state law and a copy of the agreement will be issued with each teacher's contract.
9. All teaching, activity, advisor and coaching positions shall be posted to faculty members. During the school year, openings will be posted in the teachers' lounge. During the summer, teachers will receive a letter informing them of any openings. It is the teacher's responsibility to inform the administration of their whereabouts.
10. Savings Clause: If any part of this agreement is found to be contrary to law, only that part of the agreement will become invalid to the extent required by law. If such an occurrence happens, and if both parties wish to re-negotiate the item, they may, by the consent of both parties, begin negotiations to alter the said section(s), providing the benefit(s), according to the intent of the parties.
